

Bahçeşehir University
Department of Industrial Engineering

Faculty Position Available

The Department of Industrial Engineering at Bahçeşehir University invites applications for a full-time position at the assistant, associate or full professor level to begin in September 2011. All applicants are required to hold a doctorate in industrial engineering, operations management or a closely related field. The successful candidate is expected to demonstrate high potential to publish in well-known journals while engaging with practitioners, and to possess creative and effective teaching skills at undergraduate and graduate levels. We are particularly interested in hiring individuals who have teaching and research interest / experience in at least one of the following fields.

Logistics: Transportation, distribution, service logistics, warehousing, procurement, contract management.

Manufacturing / Service Information Systems: System analysis, system dynamics, MIS, ERP, DSS, simulation.

Bahçeşehir University is located in Beşiktaş, at the heart of İstanbul, Turkey, on a beautiful campus located by the Bosphorus. It now enrolls approximately 10,000 students. College of Engineering at Bahçeşehir University is a fast-growing college. The Department of Industrial Engineering has 8 full-time faculty members, brings an impressive range of expertise to the college, with doctorates from some of the leading national and international universities.

Candidates should send their letter of interest, curriculum vitae, supporting materials such as teaching and research statements, and contact information for three references electronically to:

Prof.Dr. M. Süleyman Demokan
Dean, Faculty of Engineering
Bahçeşehir University, Beşiktaş, İstanbul, Turkey
E-mail: suleyman.demokan@bahcesehir.edu.tr
Web: <http://english.bahcesehir.edu.tr/>